

ST14-04 Sale of a Main Home

(Without Foreclosure or Abandonment)

If a taxpayer sells their main home in the tax year, they may be able to exclude any gain up to $250,000 ($500,000 on a joint return in most cases). If all of the gain can be excluded, the sale does not have to be reported on the taxpayer's tax return unless the taxpayer chooses not to exclude it or the taxpayer receives a Form 1099S.

Death of a spouse in any year other than 2010 increases the base cost of the home.

Use the following documents as references when completing a Sale of Home transaction:

- . Pub 4012 – Tab D
- . Pub 17 – Chapter 15 – Selling Your Home
- . Pub 523 – Selling Your Home

Use "Sch D Wkt 2 - Sale of Your Home" in TaxWise to determine if there is a taxable gain as a result of the sale of the home. If there are no items entered on the "Cap Gn Wkt", "Sch D Wkt 1" will have to be added to the tree (Wkt 2 will come along with Wkt 1)

If there is a gain that cannot be excluded, that gain will be taxable. On the tax return, the taxable gain is reported on Form 8949, Schedule D and 1040 Line 13. In TaxWise, the gain is entered on the Cap Gn Wkt.

Example: Sue Giant sold her Rockaway home in 2014. During your interview, you determine that Sue lived in and owned the home in New Jersey continuously for 30 years. On January 15, 1984 she purchased the home for $85,000. On August 3, 2014 she sold the home for $500,000. Sue put a major addition on the home in 1995 which cost $125,000. The cost of purchase and sale was deducted from the purchase and sale price. Sue did not receive a 1099-S.

In TaxWise complete Sch D Wkt2. (Add it to the tree if not there.) See page 2 for the completed form.
